

California National Guard Financial Assistance Fund

(CNGFAF) was established to provide short term, financial assistance, in the form of grants, to California National Guard members and their families who have experienced significant financial issues brought on by their deployment.

Eligibility Criteria:

1. He or she is a member of the CNG in good standing or is family of the member, custodial parent, or legal guardian of a member's dependent.
2. The CNG member was, or currently is, on federal active military duty in connection with Operation Enduring Freedom (OEF) or Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF).
3. The CNG member or the family member has an unmet need, as defined in the CNGFAF SOP.
4. Army Regulation 930-4, para 2-9 Assistance to Surviving Spouses and Orphans, 2-11 Categories of Authorized emergency financial assistance, 2-12 Categories of unauthorized emergency financial assistance, may be used as guidelines when determining eligibility.

To receive consideration for a grant, the applicant must submit the JFHQ Form 37-5-R. The application form can also be found online at:

www.calguard.ca.gov/j1/cngfaf

These applications must be submitted to:

California National Guard
ATTN: CNGFAF
P.O. Box 269101
Box 37
Sacramento, CA
95827-3562

*Applications may also be submitted via fax (916) 854-3439 or email to J1@ca.ngb.army.mil

The application with original signatures must be submitted before any grant payments may be disbursed.*

California National Guard
ATTN: CNGFAF
PO Box 269101 Box 37
Sacramento, CA
95827-3562

Mission First! Family Always!

Are You Having Financial Difficulties
Because Of Deployment?

The California National Guard Financial Assistance Fund

Inside ...

- What is CNGFAF?
- Eligibility Requirements
- Application Information